Support a community treasure...

The Wilmette Community Band has performed in the community and across the Northshore for over thirty years. Our concert series, performances for civic events and holiday parades bring live music to hundreds of people each year. Your financial support of our not-for-profit organization is tax deductible, and includes grayscale advertising for the concert season both online* at our web site (through August), and in print on our concert series programs (four programs). *Text Message is for program print only - not online.
